

PRC60 6-Pan Refrigerated Condiment Rail

REFRIGERATED CONDIMENT RAIL SPECIFICATIONS

PrepRite above the counter, refrigerated condiment rails are an outstanding value for foodservice operations. Ample pan capacity provides space to keep ingredients at optimum temperature and close to the point of meal preparation. Incorporating the latest technology and high quality materials and components, units provide reliable product temperature, lower utility costs, and compliance to food safety standards.

Our condiment rails can be purchased as part of one of our complete PrepRite prep table units or bought separately for use with any prep table with an overall width of at least 60.78".
